Town of Davidson Police and Fire Departments to Participate in Parade of Lights

DAVIDSON, N.C. – First responders from the greater Mecklenburg area will be conducting a “Parade of Lights” on Wednesday, April 15, beginning at 2:00 p.m. to praise brave healthcare workers at hospitals in the North Mecklenburg County area. In addition to members of the Davidson Police and Fire Departments, Huntersville Police and Fire, Cornelius Police and Fire, Long Creek Fire, Charlotte-Mecklenburg Police, and Mecklenburg EMS Agency-Medic members will also be participating.

The procession will depart from the Huntersville Police Department at 2:00 p.m. and proceed to Novant Health at 1003 Gilead Road, and then to Atrium Health, Novant Health Lakeside Family Physicians (Antiquity), and Novant Health Lakeside Family Physicians (Jetton Road). For a complete parade route, click HERE.

First responders will NOT be stopping at locations- the parade will be continuous. If you have any questions, please contact Huntersville Police Public Information Officer Odette Saglimbeni at HPHPIO@huntersville.org or 704-464-5400.
